Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 16th August 1871.

No. 49. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 15th July 1871, No. 2065 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 816, dated 13th June 1871, inquiring whether the rule of 20th January 1871, prohibiting the employment in the Uncovenanted Civil Service of persons above the age of twenty-five years, except on special grounds, is to be applied to the case of persons who having voluntarily resigned the service seek to obtain re-admission.

2. In reply, I am desired to say that, so far as regards the re-admission of persons situated as above, it is a question for the officer appointing to determine and probably previous service, if it proved the capacity of the person, might be a special reason for employment.

3. In the case of re-employment of such persons, the rule for the reduction of pension will apply.

4. In regard to this rule, it should be remarked that it imposes no "specified disadvantage as regards pension," but only prevents the undue advantage which the persons to whom it applies would otherwise obtain by being permitted to earn a full pension by a service of less than thirty years.

No. 50. ORDER THEREON, 16th August 1871, No. 1238.

The Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George.

Friendship (Warrant) Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter N^o 816, dated 13th June 1871, enquiring whether the rule of 20th January 1871, prohibiting the employment in the Uncovenanted Civil Service of persons above the age of 25 years, except on special grounds, is to be applied to the case of persons who having voluntarily resigned the service, seek to obtain readmission.

2 In reply I am desired to say that so far as regards the readmission of persons situated as above, it is a question for the Officer appointing, to determine, and probably previous service if it proved the capacity of the person might be a special reason for employment.

3 In the case of reemployment of such persons, the rule for the reduction of pension will apply.

In regard to this rule, it should be remarked that it imposes no "specified disadvantage as regards pension", but only presents the undue advantage which the persons to whom it applies, would otherwise obtain by being permitted to earn a full pension by a service of less than 30 years.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant.

Yours truly,

The 15th July 1871.
