Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

29th August 1871.

No. 157. Read the following letter from the Committee appointed to arrange for the distribution of the accommodation in the new Building at Chepauk, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 11th August 1871 :—

With reference to Government Order, dated 4th August 1871, No. 1174, we have the honour to inform you that we have met in Committee this day and have arranged for the distribution of the accommodation afforded by the Chepauk Building amongst the Departments named by Government.

2. The Chepauk Agent and the Conservator of Forests have not been present, but due attention has been paid to their requirements.

3. We submit two plans showing the manner in which we propose that the accommodation should be distributed.

4. Before the several Departments take possession of the spaces allotted to them, it will be necessary to incur some expense in removing partitions, repairing floors, &c., and we request that orders may be issued for the necessary estimates to be framed if our proposals are approved of.
