Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

1st February 1871.

No. 5. Read the following letter from R. K. PUCKLE, Esq., President of the Municipal Commissions in Tinnevely, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Tinnevely, 16th January 1871, No. 8:—

The Roman Catholic Missionary of Palamcottah has represented the distress he is suffering, owing to the failure of funds incidental on the continental war. I think his case one of great hardship, but the Municipal Committee decline to exempt him from payment of house-tax, on the grounds that there is no provision for such exemption in Act X. of 1865. As, however, this Act was intended for the benefit, and not for the annoyance, of rate-payers, and as the case under report is deserving of special consideration, I beg to submit it for the orders of Government.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 1st February 1871, No. 139.

The Government are unable to interfere with the action taken by the Palamcottah Municipality in the case referred to by Mr. Puckle.

2. The Municipality would appear to have overlooked Section 36 of Act X. of 1865.
