Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
23rd September 1871.

No. 107. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce (Emigration), to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 12th September 1871, No. 43:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your office letter, No. 857, dated 16th June last, and to point out that the Despatch of His Grace the Secretary of State for India on the subject of the measurement of emigrant vessels was only forwarded for the opinion of His Excellency the Governor in Council.

2. I am, therefore, to request that, pending final decision of the question by Her Majesty's Government, the orders contained in the letter from the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 4030 (Public), dated 2nd September 1869, prescribing Sterling's rule of measurement, may continue to be observed at Madras.

No. 108. ORDER THEREON, 23rd September 1871, No. 1448.

Communicated to the Master Attendant, Madras, with reference to G. O., dated 16th June 1871, No. 856.

2. The Master Attendant will adhere to Sterling's system of measurement until further orders.
