Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 28th September 1871.

No. 125. Read the following letter from the Commissioner of Police, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 21st September 1871, No. 55 :—

On behalf of the Committee of Management of the Government Workhouse, Thomas Kelly, } England. I have the honour to request you will obtain the sanc-
Thomas Lamb, } tion of Government to the deportation of the three
B. Froggatt, his } wife and two } Melbourne. vagrants whose names are given in the margin, to be children. } sent to England and Melbourne under the provisions of the Vagrancy Act.

Thomas Kelly, of Liverpool, aged 20, labourer. States that he came to this country about two years ago as an ordinary sailor, left his ship in Cocanada and came to Madras, where he was employed by the Roman Catholic Mission at Bangalore. Remained there till 21st July 1871. Came to Madras and has not been able to find any other employment. Wishes to be sent to England.

The Master Attendant will probably be able to arrange with some Commander of a ship to take this man for less than the usual rate, as he can be made useful on boardship.

Benjamin Froggatt, aged 50.
Catherine Froggatt, aged 40, wife of above.
Charles Froggatt, aged 11, } Children of above.
Anna Froggatt, aged 8, }

Froggatt came from the Colonies where he was in business but failed. He arrived here about three years ago in the Hugunont, in charge of a batch of horses, bringing with him his family, together with his eldest son, who has since returned to Melbourne and is in employ there, but not in a position to be able to send for his family. Froggatt was employed on the Railway as a Watchman at 30 Rupees per month; but, on the return of the Locomotive Superintendent from Europe, a reduction of hands took place and he was discharged. This occurred in March last, since which time he has not been able to get any other employ. Being well-known in the Colonies and used to the kind of labour he will be able to obtain there, he wishes to be sent to Melbourne.

Thomas Lamb, of Dublin, aged 32, states that he left the army at the expiration of his ten years in 1862, since which time he has been employed in various ways, principally on the Railways. Being unable now to find any employment, he wishes to be sent home. Was sent down from Godavery District as a vagrant by the Magistrate of Godavery.
