No. 15. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 23rd January 1871, No. 690 :—

I have the honour, by direction of the Acting President, to submit, for the information of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, the report of the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants which was held on 14th, 15th, and 16th ultimo, and to express regret that it has not been laid before Government at an earlier date, the delay having been caused by the non-receipt, until 18th instant, of the report of one of the local Committees.

2. Of the six Assistant Collectors who signified their intention to appear for examination according to the second or higher standard, one, Mr. H. T. Knox, is reported by the local Committee to have been prevented from coming forward in consequence of illness.

3. Of the five who were examined four have been successful in passing, viz., Mr. H. Newman, regarding whom a special report was submitted on 17th ultimo; Mr. T. J. Maltby, who was examined only in Divisions A. and B., being those in which he had failed on former occasions; Mr. H. M. Winterbotham, and Mr. E. L. Pearse, who were examined in all the subjects, and who passed in the above order of merit.

4. I am desired to mention specially that Mr. Winterbotham's papers on Indian Penal Code, Criminal Procedure Code, and Law of Evidence display great ability, and 207 marks out of 240 are awarded to them. In Revenue his papers are in some respects the best, but he did not attempt one of the questions which carried a large number of marks. The Government Translators have reported most favourably of his acquirements in the Vernaculars. The Malayalam Translator considers the Translation and Dictation papers "highly creditable to Mr. Winterbotham," the translation, as a whole, being both correct and idiomatic.

5. I am to request that Government will be pleased to sanction to the four gentlemen above named the extra allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem from 17th ultimo, the day after that on which the examinations terminated.

6. The unsuccessful candidates by the higher standard is Mr. M. R. Weld, whose failure is attributable to want of proficiency in his first language, Telugu, for which he will have to appear at the examination next June.

7. The Committee consider it only due to Mr. Weld to lay before Government the explanation which he wrote on the translation paper. "I have only been in Bellary since August 15th last, so I have not had much time to learn Telugu. I was before that in South Canara."

8. Six Assistant Collectors presented themselves for examination according to the first or lower standard. Of these two only, Mr. G. T. Mackenzie and Mr. F. A. Nicholson, were successful, and passed in order of merit as above. Mr. Mackenzie's Revenue paper was a very good one.

9. The Assistants who failed to pass are Mr. R. Sewell, who did not show the required proficiency in the Vernacular, Telugu; Mr. L. Moore, who has still to pass in Revenue and Vernacular; Mr. W. A. Willock, who did not obtain sufficient marks in Revenue, Law of Evidence, and Vernacular; and Mr. W. G. Underwood (a Civilian of 1870), who did not attempt the Revenue papers, and who failed in Vernacular. He, however, passed creditably in the Judicial subjects composing Division B., and fairly in Division C., Law of Evidence.

No. 16. ORDER THEREON, 4th February 1871, No. 150.

It appears, from the foregoing report of the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, that of the five gentlemen who presented themselves for the second or higher standard of examination for Assistants, four of them have passed successfully, and are entitled to the extra allowance of Rupees 175 each per mensem, which is sanctioned with effect from the 17th December 1870.

2. The Government have received with much pleasure the report of Mr. Winterbotham's examination.

3. Mr. Winterbotham has given very satisfactory evidence of remarkable ability and industry by passing with distinguished success the examination for the higher standard in little more than a year after his arrival in India.

4. The Government are also pleased to find that Mr. E. L. Pearse has succeeded in passing the higher standard.
