Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
13th October 1871.

No. 46. Read the following letter from the Acting Commissioner of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 6th October 1871, No. 61:—

On behalf of the Committee of Management of the Government Workhouse,
Peter Bailey and } Colonies.
A. Thompson, }
S. Mansfield } Mauritius.
Puckridge, } I have the honour to request you will obtain the sanction of Government to the deportation of the three vagrants, whose names are given in the margin, to be sent to the Colonies and Mauritius under the provisions of the Vagrancy Act.

2. Peter Bailey, aged fifty, Schoolmaster, came to Madras and Calcutta with horses in September 1870. Was employed as Schoolmaster under Bishop Tuffrel in Queensland, but having a brother, Colour Sergeant in the 95th Regiment at Bombay, took the opportunity of coming there thinking to see him, and be able also to obtain employment. On arriving at Bombay he found his brother was dead. He then went on to Poona and saw General Grant, who had known him in former days. From this Officer he received means to reach Madras, where he has tried to obtain employ. Having failed, he wishes to be deported to the Colonies.

3. Andrew Thompson, of Dublin, aged twenty-four, labourer, states that he came to Calcutta in one of Messrs. Green's ships about two years ago as an assistant cook. He afterwards joined the East Indian Railway as an assistant platelayer, left in March last in consequence of sickness, and went to Hyderabad for change; also with the hope of finding employment there. Being disappointed, he came on to Madras; has tried to get some kind of work since June last, and has failed. He requests to be sent to the Colonies where he has friends, and feels confident, as he is a labouring man, he will be able to find employment there.

4. S. Mansfield Puckridge, of London, aged forty-six, states that he landed in Bombay in 1869 from Singapore, where he had been in business for years. He entered into partnership with a Parsee in Bombay, through whose defalcations he was ruined. He then came to Madras thinking to find employment here, but every application he made having failed in consequence of the slackness of business, he requests to be deported to the Mauritius, where he feels certain of finding employ, having had business connexions with several firms there for years.

No. 47. ORDER THEREON, 13th October 1871, No. 1547.

The Government sanction the provision of free passages to—

Peter Bailey and A. Thompson to the Colonies, and
S. Mansfield Puckridge to the Mauritius.
