Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 23rd October 1871.

No. 129. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to all Local Governments and Administrations, dated Simla, 9th October 1871, Circular No. 4624 :—

I am directed to transmit, for information, copy of a Circular this day addressed to the several Departments of the Government of India, and to request, with reference to the suggestion made at the close thereof, that, if not the practice already, copies of all official publications, issued under the authority of the several Local Governments and Administrations, be forwarded, as soon as possible, in the usual manner, to the India Office, London.

Office Memorandum from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the several Departments of the Government of India, dated Simla, —
October 1871.

A complaint has been made, demi-officially, by the Statistical Department of the India Office, London, that the official publications noted on the margin have not been transmitted to that office, and that, in fact, it is not kept regularly supplied with copies of official publications of a similar kind issued in India.

Accounts relating to the Trade and Navigation of British India, from December 1866 to October 1870.
Annual Statements (Nos. 1, 2, and 3) of the Trade and Navigation of British India with foreign countries, and the Coasting Trade between the several Presidencies in the years ending 30th April 1867, 31st March 1868, and 31st March 1869.
(See Gazette of India, Part III, dated 11th February 1871, page 42.)

2. The undersigned is directed to suggest that the necessary measures may be taken by the proper Department of the Government of India for remedying the particular omission complained of; and the undersigned is further directed to call the attention of the several Departments of the Government of India to the necessity of forwarding to the India Office, as soon as possible after issue, copies of all official publications.

No. 130. ORDER THEREON, 23rd October 1871, No. 1807.
Communicated to all Departments of the Government Secretariat.
