I reply to the Official Memorandum
from the Under Secretary to Government, dated 7th September 1877. I have the honor to report that besides the District Press, there is only one private Press known as "Vidya Vilasam" which formerly belonged to one Mr. S. S. Srinivasan of Masulipatnam. It has not been working for long but it has now been purchased by Gundupati Kaswaraj & Co.
who have made the necessary declaration under India Act XXV of 1867.

2. As no work was turned out of this Press during 1870-71 and no Newspapers and periodicals published in the Krishna District, no return of Press work, is herewith submitted.
