With reference to Proceedings of Government, No. 3116, dated 27th September 1871, Military Department, I have the honour to request you will be so good as to inform me whether the instructions therein laid down, in respect to the purchase of books, &c., apply to the special sanction accorded by Government in Proceedings of Government, No. 502, dated 18th April 1871, for the purchase locally from the Christian Knowledge Society's Depôts in India of Bibles, &c., for the use of European Soldiers, Hospitals, Army Schools, and Churches.

C., No. 14, dated 18th February 1870, Bibles, Prayer Books, &c., for British Soldiers are to be obtained, under Her Majesty's Regulations, by Indents by Commanding Officers of Regiments on the Under Secretary of State for War; there will, therefore, only remain Drummers, Fifers, and Musicians of Native Corps, Carnatic Ordnance Artificers, and Patients in Military and in Civil Hospitals, and Churches for which these books will have to be provided, and I would suggest that they be obtained from the Christian Knowledge Society's Depôts as both an economical and easy mode of supply.

The Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines will be informed that the instructions contained in the Proceedings of Government in the Military Department, dated the 27th ultimo, No. 3116, do not supersede the authority accorded by the Secretary of State in his Despatch, dated the 16th March last, No. 5 (Public).
