Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 9th February 1871.

No. 33. Proceedings of Government, Revenue Department.

Read the following letter from the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 24th January 1871, No. 463:—

With reference to my letter, No. 434, dated the 23rd instant, forwarding for opinion forms for exhibiting the ultimate results of the proposed general Census of November 1871, I am directed to enclose copy of a letter* from the Mint Master respecting the classification of the money-trading classes.

2. Form No. VI., sent with my letter above referred to, is intended to be compiled, as nearly as possible, in accordance with † See letter from this Department, No. 2376, dated 21st May 1869.

Colonel Strachey's Memorandum† of 6th March 1869; but as the classification of the money-trading classes suggested by Lieutenant-Colonel Hyde is fuller, the Governor-General in Council desires that Class V., B. h., of Colonel Strachey's Memorandum may, if convenient, be re-cast in accordance with Colonel Hyde's views.

From Lieutenant-Colonel H. HYDE, R.E., Mint Master, Calcutta, to the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Calcutta, 13th December 1870, No. 730.

In the Census that is to be taken throughout India in the year 1871, it will be desirable to have the money-trading classes carefully defined under the following heads:—

1st.—Bankers proper, i.e., who are not money changers.

2nd.—Bankers, bullion dealers, who carry on the money-changing business as a supplement to their proper business.

3rd.—Money-changers proper, who solely live by changing money.

4th.—Money changers, whose operations are confined to the exchange of copper coin, and who trade on roadsides, serrai enclosures, &c., and have no established shop.

5th.—General shopkeepers, who are also money changers.

2. If this is done from time to time, the increase and decrease in the trade will give a good indication of the progress of the currency; and I have, therefore, to submit the proposal for the consideration and orders of Government.

Order, 4th February 1871, No. 239.

Communicated to the Board of Revenue for information and guidance.

No. 34. ORDER THEREON, 9th February 1871, No. 177.

Communicated to the Presidents of the several Municipalities for information and guidance.
