My Lord Duke,

I have the honor to forward you some of the papers issued by this Society together with several copies of a schedule of Charity Organisations, Prejudice Societies &c. established in the principal towns in this country and in America.
And I am directed by the Council to ask if your Grace will kindly consent to assist them by obtaining from the principal towns in India information regarding any organisations of a similar character existing in them.

I am directed to add that Lord Kimberley has already kindly consented to obtain from the various Colonies information likely to be of interest interest to the Society.

The purpose of the Council in asking for this information is to promote the interchange of experience and opinion on questions of social economy tending to the improvement of the condition of the poor and the proper migration of labour.
