Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 5th December 1871.

No. 7. Read the following letter from the Officiating Superintendent of Telegraphs, Madras Division, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 24th November 1871, No. 1590:—

With reference to the accompanying extract from Government of India (Foreign Department), No. 188-T., dated 8th March 1870, I have the honour to report, under the orders of the Director-General of Telegraphs in India, that the Telegraph Office at Cuddalore will be closed on, and after, the 1st January next.

2. A communication to the above effect has, this day, been addressed to the Collector of South Arcot, Cuddalore.

EXTRACT from a letter from the Officiating Junior Under Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Director-General of Telegraphs in India, dated 8th March 1870, No. 188-T.

Paragraph 2. "In reply, I am directed to state that His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council approves of your proposal to keep the office (Cuddalore) open so long as there are Supernumerary Signallers to work it. When such is no longer the case, His Excellency in Council considers that the reasons adduced are not strong enough to prevent the abolition of the office if worked at a loss."

No. 537-T. of the 11th March 1870.

Forwarded to the Superintendent, Madras Division, with reference to his No. 2347, dated the 6th January 1870.
