No. 47. From the Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 2nd October 1871, No. 204-G.

Ordnance Department.

In continuation of my Report, No. 170-G., dated 8th September 1871, I have now the honour to append a memorandum of the articles of which amples have been received by the Superintendent of Stationery from the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Rajahmundry, showing the cost at which they have been offered to be supplied at the jail, that is, exclusive of the cost of carriage to Madras.

2. By the side of the column "Jail prices" will be found the "Present rates" at which the articles are being delivered at the Stationery Depôt, and a comparison of the two, with the addition of an allowance for the cost of transport to Madras, renders the purchase of the articles from the Jail at Rajahmundry unadvisable.

To, The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

In continuation of my Report No. 4204, dated 8th September 1871, I have now the honor to append a Memorandum of the Articles of which samples have been received by the Superintendent of Stationery from the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Rajahmundry, shewing the cost at which they have been offered to be supplied at the jail, that is, exclusive of the cost of Carriage to Madras.

By side of the column "Jail prices" will be found "the present rates," at which the Articles are being delivered at the Stationery Depot, and a comparison of the two with the addition of an allowance for the cost of transport to Madras, renders the purchase of the Articles from the jail at Rajahmundry inadvisable.
