by this office, is prepared to disburse the charge in the Civil Department, if authorized by Government as in the case referred to; and I beg, therefore, as the duty on which this Officer is employed is of a purely civil nature, that the necessary sanction be obtained.

From the Pay Examiner, Fort Saint George, to the Acting Controller of Military Accounts, dated Fort Saint George, 16th January 1871, No. 49.

In submitting for your instructions letter, No. 3068, dated 9th January 1871, from the Acting Paymaster, Presidency, requesting to be informed whether the staff salary of Lieutenant-Colonel Applegath, 2nd in Command and Wing Officer, 33rd Regiment N. I., is to be passed to him as compensation while on special duty in the Kistna District, I have the honour to state that this Department is not in possession of any information relative to the remuneration Lieutenant-Colonel Applegath is in receipt of from the Civil Department, this office not having been furnished with a copy of the Order of Government directing his employment on the special duty in question.

2. Lieutenant-Colonel Shortland, Acting 2nd in Command and Wing Officer, has drawn the full salary of the appointment, which, however, has not been admitted by this Department, pending the receipt of information as to the position of Lieutenant-Colonel Applegath and the emoluments received by him for the duties on which he is employed, which has been called for from the Officer Commanding the 33rd Regiment N. I.

appear before the Superintendent of the Geological Survey to give evidence regarding the existence of coal near Juggiapetta, Government sanctioned, in the Revenue Department, the amount of his expenses and such sum as may cover the loss of his allowances while absent from his Regiment on this special duty, which were charged against the Civil Department, his Staff Corps pay only being debited to the Military Department.

From the Acting Paymaster, Presidency, to the Pay Examiner, Fort Saint George, dated 9th January 1871, No. 3068.

Lieutenant-Colonel F. Applegath, 2nd in Command and Wing Officer, 33rd Regiment, being now on other duty, exploring for coal in the Kistna District, I have the honour to request early information as to whether his present allowance as 2nd in Command and Wing Officer is to be continued to him during such absence as compensation.

2. Lieutenant-Colonel Applegath's pay of rank will be disbursed on a separate bill, pending the settlement of the question as to whether his dues should be drawn in the Civil or Military Department while on this duty.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department.

17th February 1871.

Referred to the Public Department, as to whether compensation for his staff allowance as 2nd in Command and Wing Officer, 33rd Regiment, is to be disbursed to Lieutenant-Colonel Applegath as in 1868.
