No. 31. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort William, 24th January 1871, No. 439 :—

Leave and Allowances.

Read—

A letter from the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 2132-R, of the 9th ultimo, suggesting that the Local Government should be allowed "to sanction pay for time overstayed" to Officers in Assam who exceed privilege leave "whenever it may be clearly shown that the failure to rejoin in time is the result of involuntary detention."

RESOLUTION.—According to existing rules, if an Officer overstay his privilege leave, he forfeits all salary during the time of his remaining so absent; and if he continue so absent for more than one week, his office becomes vacant. It is always open to a Local Government to exempt an officer from the second of these penalties by re-appointing him to any office he may forfeit; but the Governor-General in Council regrets that it is impossible to sanction any exemption from the first penalty. His Excellency in Council observes that an application on behalf of Officers of the Public Works Department in Assam, somewhat similar to the application now under consideration, was negatived in an Order of this Department, No. 388, dated the 31st May 1867.

ORDERED that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the—Home Department, with a copy of the papers mentioned in its preamble,

Communicating Reports to Handed on a letter from the Port of Bengal, suggests that that the local Govt, should be allowed to handle them for some time (overseas), to off-in a team who were found to have been arrested and to clearly show that the failure to perform in time
 is the result of institutional detention.
