2. In the first of the foregoing letters, the Inspector-General of Jails states that no rent is charged for the buildings occupied by the Superintendents of Central Jails, Jailers and Deputy Jailers, and Dressers attached to Central and District Jails, and he sees no reason to propose any change.

last, that the buildings in the Vellore Fort are occupied as the Pension Pay Office and Small Cause Court, respectively, and not as the private residences of Captain R. Mayne and Mr. H. P. Gordon.

7. The statement furnished by the Inspector-General of Police shows that there are eight public buildings occupied by Police Officers. Of these, one is used as a Place of Arms, and the Inspector-General recommends that, on account of the nature of the duties and the disadvantages as to locality, the Police Inspector at Jaggiahpettah should be allowed, as a special case, to occupy his quarters rent free. The rent of Rupees 10 proposed by the Superintendent of Police for the bungalow at Appayapully, in the district of Cuddapah, which is now unoccupied, is considered by the Deputy Inspector-General of Police to be high. The rents of the other five buildings vary from 8 Annas to Rupees 5, and amount to Rupees 14½ per mensem. Two of the buildings need repair and additions.

8. The Government sanction the grant of free quarters to the Police Inspector at Jaggiahpettah, and direct that the rent of the bungalow at Appayapully be reduced from Rupees 10 to Rupees 7 per mensem. In respect to the other buildings, the Government are of opinion that the occupants should be required to make the necessary repairs and alterations at their own expense, and live in the buildings rent free.

9. The Government concur with the Inspector-General of Jails that no change should be made in the present system of allowing free quarters to the subordinates attached to Central and District Jails. As regards Superintendents of Central Jails, it is observed that the Government of India have, in their Secretary's letter, dated the 14th February 1871, No. 214, defined the conditions under which free quarters should be allowed to those officers.
