Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

14th March 1871.

No. 75. Read the following letter from the Health Officer, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras. 7th March 1871, No. 236 :—

I have the honour of informing you that, having had occasion to entertain two new persons last month in the Health Department, under the Contagious Diseases' Act of 1868, one an Inspector upon Rupees 25, and the other a Goomastah upon 15 Rupees per mensem (the former thirty-nine years of age, and the latter twenty-six), the Officiating Assistant Accountant-General has disallowed the payment of their respective salaries, unless special orders of Government for their entertainment are passed, as their ages are more than twenty-five years—vide Notification of Government of India, dated 20th January 1871, No. 423.

2. In September 1868, it was considered necessary that only men of a certain age and of good character should be entertained in the Department, and I was directed to pay particular attention to the men I selected for such a delicate duty.

3. I beg you will bring this to the notice of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, that the Notification above mentioned may not be compulsory in the Health Department, and that the ages of the men employed be left to the discretion of the Health Officer.

No. 76. ORDER THEREON, 14th March 1871, No. 331.

Under the circumstances represented by the Health Officer, the Government sanction, as a special case, the employment of the Inspector and Goomastah referred to in the foregoing letter, and authorize the Acting Accountant-General to pass the salaries due to them.
