Ordnance Department.

With reference to Proceedings of Government, No. 147, dated 13th January 1871, on the subject of the arrangements under which Office Furniture is to be in future supplied, I have the honour to request that I may be favoured with the orders of Government as to the Department or Departments by which the Accounts and Returns connected with this description of public property are to be audited. I have been obliged to make this reference in consequence of a difference of opinion having arisen as to which is the proper Department.

2. On the Magistrate of the Royapettah Police Court asking for information as to whether he was to forward the Annual Return of Office Furniture for the year ending 30th April 1871 to this office, he was referred to the Circular Memo-

3. Captain Lys has again addressed me on the subject, and forwarded to me copy of a letter from the Acting Accountant-General, in which that Officer states the Order of Government requires that his Office should audit all charges incurred, and it appears to me that the Officer who audits the charges connected with the supply and repair of office furniture of any Department should also receive the Annual Return showing the stock on hand of that furniture for the purpose of incorporating the same in the Annual Departmental Accounts in the same way as laid down in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Controller's Circular, viz.:—

With reference to the Orders of Government marginally noted, it is directed that the supply, renewal, and repair of office furniture in the several Public Offices shall, in future, be made departmentally by the Head of each Office, with, in the case of supplies, the sanction of Government (which should be obtained through the Head of the Department), and when possible shall be procured from one of the Jails in which furniture is manufactured, the cost being provided for annually in Departmental Budget Estimates, and the supplies audited by Departmental Examiners. Thus, supplies to Commissariat Offices will be audited by the Commissariat Examiner; to Ordnance Offices, by the Ordnance Examiner; to Military Offices, other than the above, by the Pay Examiner; and to Civil Offices, by the Deputy Accountant-General; their values being admitted at once as a final charge in the Accounts of the Departments concerned.

2. Annual Returns of Office Furniture in use in Arsenals, Magazines, Depôts, Ordnance Manufacturing Establishments, and the Office of the Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, will be forwarded direct to the Examiner of Ordnance Accounts, on or before the 15th of April of
