No. 56. Read the following letter from the Acting Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 26th May 1871, No. 66:—

Audit Department.

With reference to the Order of Government of India, No. 423, dated 20th January 1871, I have the honour to request that I may be informed how this Department should treat the case of a man who, having resigned the service of Government of his own accord, now seeks re-employment.

No. 57. ORDER THEREON, 13th June 1871, No. 815.

The question will be referred for the decision of the Supreme Government.

2. Ordered that the following letter be despatched:—

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

No. 816.

FROM

W. HUDLESTON, Esq.,
Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

Referring to the Notification of the Governor-General in Council, dated 20th January 1871, prohibiting the employment in the Uncovenanted Civil Service of persons above the age of twenty-five years, except on special grounds, and then at a specified disadvantage as regards pension, I am directed to inquire whether this rule is to be applied to the case of persons who, having voluntarily resigned the service, seek to obtain re-admission.

2. I am to point out that, under paragraph 16 of the Secretary of State's Financial Despatch, No. 208, dated 24th November 1863, abrogating the orders of the Honourable the Court of Directors, permitting an exception to the rule prohibiting grant of pension for other than continuous service in cases of one break of less than twelve months by voluntary resignation, persons situated as above described already incur the penalty of loss of all such previous service for pension.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Acting Chief Secretary.
