a Merchant residing in house, door
No. 232, in Ungapah Naick Street, in Black Town, within the local limits of Madras.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,

That your Lordship's Memorialist was born in Shiraz about thirty-three years ago and about ten years he is in India, and ever since carried on merchandize in several places under the Government.

2. That your Lordship's Memorialist is now stationed at Madras carrying on business as a merchant; and, being desirous of settling permanently in Madras, prays that a certificate from your Lordship's Government, granting him all the rights, privileges, and capacities of naturalization, may be conferred upon him in accordance with the provisions of Act XXX. of 1852.
