No. 128. From C. BERNARD, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Establishments), to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Simla, 11th May 1878, No. 5-552.

I am directed to forward, for information and guidance, the accompanying copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India on the subject of the destination, &c., of candidates selected for the Covenanted Civil Service of India, and to invite the special attention of His Grace the Governor in Council to paragraph 4 thereof.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From the Most Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 2nd January 1878, No. 10 (Public).

The despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated 1st November, No. 97 of 1877, on the subject of the destination of candidates selected for the Covenanted Civil Service, has been considered by me in Council.

2. I concur in the opinion expressed by your Lordship in Council that every Civil Servant is bound to serve wherever the Government, at any period of his career, requires him to go. This should be laid down as a general rule.

3. The above general rule will be communicated to the selected candidates and at the same time they will be informed that in the ordinary course appointment to the Lower Provinces of Bengal includes liability to service in Assam and Burma; to North-Western Provinces and Punjab, liability to service in Oudh and Sind; to Madras, liability to service in Burma; and to Bombay, liability to service in the Central Provinces.

4. Further, I am of opinion that no Civil Servant should, as a general rule, be sent to the outlying provinces above named (Assam, Burma, Sind, &c.), until he has passed his departmental examinations in his own Presidency.
