Read the following paper :—

- No. 1. From the Acting Collector of the Kistna District, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Masulipatam, 24th December 1878, No. 2840.

With reference to G.O., No. 762, of 6th May 1878, I have the honor to report that Mr. Sewell has obtained the paper he wants at an aggregate cost of Rupees 121-7-9. He says he has tried a few experiments with the papers, and that he will soon set to work in earnest. He wishes to be informed whether Government desire that the impressions be forwarded to them or to the Curator of the Central Museum direct.

- No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 3rd January 1879, No. 3.

The impressions should be sent to the Central Museum, where they should be carefully preserved pending scrutiny by some competent authority.
