Emigration.

Read the following paper :—

No. 14. From R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Acting Protector of Emigrants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 9th November 1880, No. 349.

I have the honor to report the arrival at this port, on the 7th instant, of the barque Umvote, with forty return emigrants from Natal.

2. The return emigrants, who were landed on the 8th idem, were, with the exception of six invalids, generally in good health. They stated that the provisions, &c., supplied to them during the voyage were good and sufficient, and that they were well treated by the Captain on board. They further declared that they had been well treated by the proprietors of the estates on which they were working while in Natal.

3. There were two deaths during the voyage, one from chronic dysentery and the other from pneumonia, but no births.

4. Arrangements have been made to send four of the invalids to hospital and the destitute emigrants back to their homes at the expense of the Colonial Government.

5. No information is available to show the amount of savings brought by these emigrants, but from inquiries made it was ascertained that one emigrant brought £35, and another £130-10-0; the others had no savings, but most of them had been returned as sick.

6. One of the return emigrants, named Iyasawmy, complained that his wages for 11½ months while in Natal was not paid to him, though he brought it to the notice of the Protector of Immigrants, Natal. I enclose copy of statement made by him before me for such action as the Government may deem fit.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Iyasawmy, father's name Vurden, made the following statement :—

I am a return emigrant from Natal. Nine months' pay is due to me from Mr. Stock of Alice Bridge Hotel. It has not been paid to me. Captain Paynton owes me pay for 2½ months. I made the complaint to Mr. Mason three times before I left Natal, and he promised to inquire and let me know soon. I have not received it. The big gentleman (Major Graves) asked me if I had anything to say. I told him that my pay for 11½ months was due. He said he had no time to speak about it.
