According to telegrams sent from the Bombay Government to the Government of Madras it is made known that the Turkish Government now require all pilgrims and others landing at Jeddah and other ports in Hedjaz to produce pass-ports. Under Government Order 12th July No. 942 the District Magistrate of Tanjore, Malabar and South Canara and the Commissioner of Police at Madras have been empowered to grant pass-ports to pilgrims embarking from the Ports under their jurisdiction. The Bombay Government have directed the Police Commissioner to grant pass-ports to pilgrims embarking at Bombay. Intending pilgrims are warned not to leave British India without obtaining pass-ports as required.
