anything about the Judge's remark about me; but when my -plea was called for by Government, he mentioned in his second letter at the dictation of the Steward, Mr. Perkins, about the Judge's remark. For Mr. King never went to the court Nor was he present at the court when the Harwiches were prosecuted. King took me to the court as one of his witnesses to prosecute the Harwiches.

His now left to you,
I should like to find out whether the Judge did make such remark in his judgment about me; for which act of kindness I shall ever be grateful will ever pray.

Yours truly
Wm. L. Garrison
