Sir, With reference to your official memo. No. 337, dated the 18th of February 1881, I have the honor to state that, Mr. M. R. Wild will not receive any increased absence allowance by getting substantive promotion while on furlough as his leave allowance does not depend upon his substantive appointment but upon the average salary which he drew during the three years preceding the date on which he gave up office. Substantive promotion will, however, give him increased pay from date of resuming charge of an appointment on return from furlough.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your obedient servant

M. R. Wild.
