To

The Secretary to the Govt. of Madras.

Dated Simla, the 3 August 1881.

Home Department. Sir,
(Public)

I am directed to request that the Home Department may in future be supplied with four copies of the Madras Gazette, of which two copies should be sent regularly throughout the year to Simla and two copies to Calcutta.

These are required irrespective of any copies that may be called for by the Revenue and Agricultural Department and should be addressed to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedt. Servant,

F. C. Daubkes

Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.
