Honoured Sir,

I have seen the rules passed by the Secretary of State for the appointment of natives of India to offices ordinarily held by members of Her Majesty's Covenanted Civil Service in India. It is intended I think, that Candidates should be selected from two classes of people 1st those that did not attain their 25th year & secondly those that have already distinguished themselves in the service of the Government without any restriction as to age. As regards the first class of persons, except the qualification of age, the other qualifications required are not expressly stated in the rules. But it is intended I believe that Local Governments should nominate young men of respectable social position and of distinguished success in the University Exams.

Higher examinations. In case any probationers are selected this year or next year or the year after next, I venture to propose an young man by the name of Mr. S. Subbarayan as a candidate for admission into this newly created native Civil service. He has not yet completed his 23rd year. He is a Bachelor of Arts and of Laws of the Madras University and has highly distinguished himself in both of those examinations. He is the first in the first Class in the B.A. examination and third in the list in the B.L. With reference to his success in the B.A. examination Colonel Maedohald the director of Public Instruction said in his speech at the Presidency College that "Mr. S. Subbarayan is 1st in the list but has obtained a number of marks rarely reached in the annals of the Madras University." I may further add that his Collegiate Course at the Presidency College College has been exceptionally brilliant. From the high opinion held of his abilities by his professors I am inclined to believe that if a list were to be prepared of all those whose age is below 25 and who have distinguished themselves in the University Higher examinations in the order of merit, the professors of the Presidency College will place him at the very top of the list. This may be ascertained by a reference to them. At the beginning of last year he was solicited as a probationer by Rajah Sir J. Madavarau K. C. S. I. who thought of creating a civil service in the Baroda State. After remaining at Baroda for 7 or 8 months he was obliged to resign his appointment as the Climate did not agree with his Constitution. He is now an apprentice at Madras with a view to get himself enrolled as a Vakeel of the High Court.

He is a native of this place and I have known the circumstances of his family for

My Lord Duke

I beg to offer myself as a candidate for admission into the Commanded Civil Service under the rules lately passed by the Secretary of State for India.

I took my B.A. degree in 1876.
With reference to my success in that Examination Colonel Macdonald the Director of Public Instruction made the following remark in his speech at the Presidency College;—

"T. Subbaram is not only first in the First class but has obtained a number of marks rarely reached in the annals of this University" I took my B.L. degree this year

At the beginning of last year I was selected as a probationer by Rajah Sri T. Madavaram P.C.S.I.
After remaining at Baroda for nearly 9 months I was obliged to resign my appointment as the Climate of that place did not agree with my constitution. I am now an apprentice here with a view to get myself enrolled as a student of the High Court.

I am in the habit of writing of Coomada. I have not yet completed my 23rd year

I enclose herewith a copy of the Certificate given me by E. Thompson Esq. M.A. & B.A.
Principal of the Presidency College
