My dear Mr. Hamilton

I see that you have lost his 29th collection in Kumool. Can't you let me have him back again? He is terribly hard pressed and wages, under those circumstances I should much of my time on trivial matters - Country Stamps! The Samabundy is going on too, and I shall have, unless you can assist Goswami to see in about small matters, from a

I had to run out & transfer out Sunday afternoon only with letters after making an evening visit to the hospital & left hand out, as noticed the lady messenger for letters, sent by the post, and the letter found by the Order, asking me about "Wednesday 13" (one letter) - you will get a full report as soon as I have time to write it - and perhaps, perhaps from the Commission before I left home, etc. I have heard a letter from the lady messenger for letters Distance. The Correspondence reporting is so heavy that I can't do inspection duty.

 There is no British in the Presidency that requires a named assistant as much as this - and I hope you will be able to give me one - if not, a named, at any rate an unnamed man, who can be trusted to count stamps.

I should like Jain, if I can get him, as he knows the place and people and could relieve me of a lot of work, which I couldn't give to a new man.

Yours sincerely

Good morning! I wish to know: the submarine showed black spots well located from the Public Department.
