The Adjutant General,
Military Department.

Sir,
The Adjutant General, Lying in Hospital at Medina has indicated for a blanket required for conveying patients to the Hospital for wound and recovery. The Hospital being a Civil Institution, there is no authority for a supply from Military stores.

2. I have the honor, by order, to inquire if Government with the supply made, and if so, whether the blanket is to be paid for by the Lying in Hospital or issued on loan.

3. I am to add that if bearing are are required, they cannot be furnished from the allotment kept up for military purposes, as all these are fully employed. -

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,
