North West Collector's Office
Chittoor 5th September 1881.

From

CURRENT NO. 1892

W. S. Whiteside, Esquire
Collector of North West

To

R. Davidson, Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

As the time for the arrival from England of a new batch of Convicted Civilian is approaching, I have the honor, strongly to urge the claims of this District, and to request that an Assistant may be posted to it as soon as possible.
The last new Assistant sent to this District was Mr. J. H. A. Tremere in December 1878; he remained with me a little more than 2 years, and since then, except for short occasional periods, I have had no Assistant, and

and in consequence have had heavy additional work to perform for many months at a time. The new Treasury Rules are very inconvenient; and I request, therefore, that my hands may be strengthened as now requested.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most obedient servant

W. J. Whittier

Collector
