My dear Puckle, $\frac{9}{12A}$

Benson will be gazetted this evening to act as Special Asst. to the Comr. of the Nilgiris for Sec.
: Clement duties till further orders, but the appointment of his successor will in some measure depend on arrangements which will have to be considered in regard to other matters, after the Governor's return tomorrow. A few

day's delay will not be of great importance I imagine.

Dear Master,

There will be no difficulty in filling the Assistant Commissioner's place temporarily as soon as H.E. the Governor returns.
Meanwhile, Mr. R.S. Benson will be gazetted to act as Special Assistant to the Commissioner Nilgiris for Settlement Duty.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Mr. Master.

I telegraphed to you, asking for the of Mr. Bishop at Common I had heard Mr. Benson was appointed to the New Settlement that his place was therefore vacant.

If Government will give me the appointment, I should like to share all things.

Dear Mr. Davidson

I beg that you will be pleased to place my application before the Government for the place. You are aware that I telegraphed because my application for printing have on such certificate then granted last April because I feared to mean the suspension and does an unprop. and abhorrent. I want to know Isaac suffered from poor the depressing effect of solution for a long time since I have got a sick certificate but
