C. NO  $\frac{1451}{2}$

The first of these is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient. It is dependent on the government for its maintenance and operation. This is a serious defect, as
 it makes the system
 vulnerable to political interference and corruption. The second defect is that
 the system is not flexible. It is not able to adapt to changing circumstances and needs. This is
 a serious defect, as
 obsolete and ineffective. The third defect is that
 the system is not
 transparent. It is not clear how the system
 works and how the money is spent. This is a serious defect, as
 it makes the system
 susceptible to fraud
 and abuse. The fourth defect is that
 the system is not
 accountable. It is not clear who is responsible for the system and its performance. This
 is a serious defect, as
 unresponsive to the needs of the people.
