besides this my being

Note

The collector of Malabar having in his telegram 32^d instant enquired whom he was to send to the Saccadians, he was on the 4th instant told by wire to send Mr.
Brodie (133) his assistant at Palghat. On the 7th instant, Mr. Brodie wrote to ask if Mr. Underwood (106) the special agent at Chalkyram could not be sent instead, as he was anxious, on private grounds, to get off going.
The expression private grounds relates, I understand, to his recent marriage. By the instruction ^{in consequence} Mr. Underwood was deputed to go; Mr. Brodie was
