FROM A. MACKENZIE, Esq.,

TO The Secretary to the Govt. of Madras.

Simla, 28 September 1881.

Home Department
P. 101a

SIR,

It has been represented to the Government of India that the change in the furlough rules effected in 1868, whereby officers absent on leave retain a lien upon their appointments, has resulted in a largely increased number of acting appointments and in frequent transfers or changes in the personnel of the administrative staff, to the detriment of the public interests. The Governor-General in Council would be glad to receive an expression of the views of the Honble the Governor in Council on the subject generally.

2. I am especially to enquire whether any practical inconvenience has been felt in the Madras Presidency owing to the operation of the existing rule; and if so, I am to request that the Government of India may be furnished with any suggestions which the Honble the Governor in Council may have to offer as to the means by which such inconvenience can most effectually be removed.

I have the honour to be

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant.

A. Mackenzie

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The Secy. to the Govt of India
Home Deptt.

Sir,

In reply to your letter no $\frac{43}{1424}$ dated 20th September last, I am directed to say that

that the existing rule in regard to the retention of a lien on their appointments by officers absent on leave has not been found to entail any such serious practical inconvenience as would induce Government to recommend any modification in the direction indicated.
