From Miss Fallon, Daryagunj. Delhi.
To The Secretary to the Government of Madras.

D. Delhi 25th Jany 1881.

Sir, I beg to state that the proprietors of the English-Hindustani Dictionary, commenced by the late Dr. Fallon are anxious to carry on the work if the Government of Madras will kindly continue their subscription for 12 copies of the English-Hindustani Dictionary, as mentioned in their letter No. 1218 of 8th August 1879.

The 1st Part of the work has been published, the 2nd and 3rd Parts are in the Press, and the 4th and 5th are in fair copy ready for the Press. About half the work has been already revised by the late Dr. Fallon, the other half requires but little revision and supervision.

The Rev. Mr. Bates author of a Hindee-English Dictionary, and Raja Shiva Prasad, C. S. I. late Inspector of Schools Benares are willing

2 2/15 to to supervise the work, and either of them with the help of Dr. Fallon's Assistants are able to bring it out with speed and accuracy and maintain the literary reputation of the late Dr. Fallon, whose daughters are anxious that his last work should not be left unfinished.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servant

Margaret Fallon
