To the Honble the Colonial Secretary
Natal

Sir,

As the for. inf. has received through the Hon.
Honble the Secy of State for India a copy of the report of the Protector of Immigrants in Natal for the year 1880. He observes that a great portion of the sickness prevalent among the labourers is attributed to the evil effects caused by the pollution of streams in the coast districts.

The Govt. inf. trusts that the attention of the Colonial Govt. has been directed to the matter, & that measures are being taken to remedy, at least in some degree,
an evil,
so fruitful a cause of mortality
