dated 16 Instant, no ¹⁸⁸⁴ 2384. I have the honor to request you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to the payment of Rs 8 being Bangalore fess incurred by me at Palghat by holding my Court there in August last for the trial of a Forest Case in the Head Assistants Division. Against one Appu Des which was specially referred to me for trial while I was Special Assistant Magistrate.

2. The charge in question was not incurred for my own accommodation in any way whatever, ^{but} for an office in which I might transact Govt. business business. If you are aware that the Head Assistant's office is barely sufficient for that officer and his establishment, and it would have been impossible for one to undertake a long case like the one in question at his office without turning him out of it. There is also no other office in Palghat which could conveniently be used.

Case specially referred to him for disposal 2. The Cases had reference to the theft of some Government Timber in which the late Mr Ratnam Chelli furnished the accused in his magisterial Capacity; but when the Case came on in appeal, the Session Judge quashed the Conviction on the ground that the Head Assistant Magistrate was prejudiced in the matter as the prosecution was apparently made at his instance as the "officer in charge of the Government Forests" A fresh trial was consequently held by the Special Assistant Magistrate who had to institute a local inquiry and to dispose of the Case at Palghat.
