RESOLUTION.

In the letters read in the preamble Local Governments submit names of Native gentlemen selected as probationers for the Native Civil Service. The nominations have been carefully considered by the Government of India, with the following results.

2. One name only, that of Mir Shujayet Ali Khan, has been submitted by the Government of Madras. This gentleman has successfully completed the course of special tests prescribed for the appointment of Deputy Collector and Sub-Judge; has for upwards of five years held responsible posts under Government; and his career in the public service has been marked by great diligence and proved capacity for work. He is of good parentage, being a member of a noble family of Hyderabad. His age is slightly in excess of 25 years, but the Governor General in Council is pleased to waive the objection on this score, and to accept the nomination of Mir Shujayet Ali Khan as a probationer.

3. The Governor General in Council has selected from the Bombay nominations—

- (1) Sheikh Jehangir Mia of Mangrol;
- (2) Ganpatrao Damodhar Panse.

Sheikh Jehangir Mia is brother of the zamindar of Mangrol, a large zemindari under His Highness the Nawab of Junagarh in Kattywar. He was for five years educated at the Rajkumar College, Rajkote, and is spoken of in the highest terms by the Principal of that institution. He is 20 years of age, and possesses a fair knowledge of English.

Ganpatrao Damodhar Panse is 22 years of age, and is a first class Sirdar in the Deccan. He is the grandson of a Sarinjamdar under the Peshwa; and his father's services in settling affairs in the Barsi Pargana were noticed with approval by Government in 1835. He has studied English in a private school at Poona and has also studied law.

4. From the Bengal list the Governor General in Council selects Maulvi Ahsanullah Ahmad, Barrister-at-Law. He is the son of the late Nawab Amir Ali Khan Bahadur, and was educated at the Madrasa and the Doveton College, Calcutta. He has been for some years in England, and after residing at Balliol College, Oxford, from 1877 to 1879, was called to the Bar. He has produced satisfactory certificates as to qualifications and general conduct, and is 22 years of age.

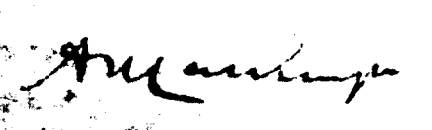

5. For the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the Governor General in Council selects Rajah Chitpal Singh, Talukdar of Chitpalgarh (Nurpur), in the Partabgarh District. This gentleman is a member of a powerful family and possesses great influence in Oudh. He is about 35 years of age; has received a liberal education; has served for several years as an Honorary Assistant Commissioner and Munsif in the Partabgarh District and has repeatedly received the thanks of Government for services rendered by him. Practically, Rajah Chitpal Singh has been performing the work of an Assistant Commissioner for several years; and in recognition of his services, His Excellency in Council is pleased to decide that, notwithstanding the objection on the score of age, Rajah Chitpal Singh shall be finally appointed to be a member of the Native Civil Service under the statutory rules without being required to undergo any period of probation.

6. From the Punjab nominations the Governor General in Council accepts that of Sirdar Gurbachan Singh, the son of Sirdar Thakur Singh Sindhania, a member of the same family as Maharajah Ranjit Singh, and brother of the present Sindhanwalia Chief, Sirdar Bakshish Singh, the adopted son of late Sirdar Shamsher Singh. This gentleman has a good knowledge of English and has passed with much credit the examination prescribed for the appointment of Extra Assistant Commissioner. He is 26 years of age.

7. All the above appointments, with the exception of that of Rajah Chitpal Singh, will be made on probation, and subject to the conditions laid down in Home Department Resolutions marginally noted as regards the amount of pay to be drawn by the probationers and the medical and other examinations to be undergone by them.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab; and that a copy be forwarded to the Department of Finance.
