Sir, Referring to the accompanying Bimonthly Return of Stores I have the honor to request that the Director General of Stores may be informed that the books therein named are not required - They were indebted for four years ago, and it is possible that the Schools for which they were wanted have secured them on subsequent indents or Messrs. Baker & Co. The supplier of Books to the India Office, Messrs. E. & J. Allen & Co. cannot be safely permitted to go on sending out these individual books at fits and starts on the ground that they were indebted for some years ago. The Budget provision for former years has lapsed and the present year's provision should not be saddled with the charge on account of these never ending supplies of single books when the current year's bills have to be first paid.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Yours most Obedt Servt

J. P. Krishna Rao
Curator of Govt Books
