22 Dec 11.

Under the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the existing Collectorate of Bellary will, from and after the 5th January 1912, be divided into two by the creation of a new Collectorate, Anantapur, with head-quarters at the town of Anantapur. Each Collector will be the "Magistrate of the District" in the district comprised within his Collectorate.

(?) The Taluqa, marginally noted, will, from the aforesaid date, be separated from Bellary and constitute the new Collectorate of Anantapur.

1. Anantapur	5. Hindupur
2. Sharmavaram	6. Gooty
3. Penukonda	7. Tadipatri
4. Madakaira

The Sub-Collectorate of Bellary will thereupon cease to exist. The local limits of the jurisdiction of the District Judge of Bellary are not varied, and the Bellary Sessions Division remains as it is now fixed. The District Jail, Bellary, is declared the District Jail of Anantapur.
