Madras Court of Small Causes
20th December 1880.

From,

J. M. Pusteed Esq.

123-240

First Judge Small Causes Court Madras.

To,

The Honourable R. Davidson Esq.

Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of His Grace the Governor in Council to the expenditure of Rs. 5-10 — incurred on account of 5 copies of Lettis's Diary for the use of this Court. For want of such sanction, the Accountant General has disallowed the charge. It has been provided for in the budget estimate for the current official year.

J. M. Pusteed

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient Servant

J. M. Pusteed

First Judge.
