Dear Davidson,

In the interests of the Kistna Journal, & of Mackenzie who has it in charge
and whose domestic arrangements
will be materially
furthered by the move could you
manage to let him

go to Sunitoor a. by Sub/collector from Bezawada where he now is close at hand instead of transferring him to Vellore where Buick w. I doubt not prefer to be instead?
Best enclosed

from Mackenzie
received a fortnight ago. The first baby is generally an important event.

Yours sincerely

My dear Master,

We all assembled here the first day after the holidays but have now dispersed to our various divisions, the Kelsalls who had been to Cocanada for Christmas back to Bunder, Kewell & Tentless Sub-collectors across the river to Junton and I am left here to weigh opium and get through the head assistants' work. We all hold very strong opinions about the conduct of Joddingham and E.C.P. Thanas is not retiring and making room for their juniors!

Now, our Junton L.F. Kewell, has left this today for Chittoor as 26 Jan. 1881.
