My recollection is that Mr. Weld went on furlough from Thursday afternoon

to Mr. Lind for his report on the fifso. I think he should know what the result is. I do not know reported as to his present status
after the war that he

With reference to the Honble W. Audleston's note on the India Office which received yesterday, Mr. Weld went on furlough from 13 October 1896 to 13 August 1897. He then returned under the order recalling all civilians under 15 years standing on account of the famine.
He again proceeded on furlough from 25 Nov. 1897.

The Secretary of State
does not appear to have been addressed
regarding the state of Mr. Weld's health.
Possibly Mr. R. Rice's
case may have occurred
to the Hon. W. Audleston.
It is understood that as Mr. Weld has been permitted to return
within the period of his leave, he will have appeared before the India Office Medical Board. Is it desired by the Honble Member

Member that the Secy
of State should be asked to have a special medical examination of Mr. Weld in addition to this ordinary examination?
