My dear Karen

There is no later news from Khorasat than the telegrams from Isfahan which I enclose in the form now placed for the copy. The letter from Isfahan dated 10th is one of the telegrams concerning the steamship business.
I have now to this letter from

My dear Dandam

Can you give me any hope of soon getting back to Kinson from Masulipatam.

This very heavy District has now only one Assistant Collector, a man of less than two months standing, and the Temporary Deputy,
Mahommed Yousuf Sahib
who has come to supplement his deficiencies does not do so, for he never held a charge of any kind before either as Revenue Officer or Magistrate and I do rather more than he can safely be trusted with to give him the work of the District and Collector up to the extent of his powers. Still he will outside his powers and accordingly in the District and as it includes the full powers Magistrate and of two Talukhs and the District this demand is ¹²times as much as done with a new District and several years some of the work on hand while the arrangement is still unfinished.

I am not making this statement on my own behalf as several have informed me of their proposal to appoint me to the District ^{and} therefore I may claim to speak without personal interest when I say that I don't think the work here can go on satisfactorily when a new collector has to Many have & interest in me.

 The Treasury Dept. collector just appointed will I am afraid find his work difficult at first and the collector will have very little time to help him

Atkinson's return would be a great boon.

Yours sincerely

My dear Dandam...

A certain amount of progress towards the division of the Anwarid estate has been made and I hope that the matter may not be so troublesome as was at first supposed. It is quite impossible however that the ^{Continue to} Jelladar can give to it so much time and attention as I have lately been giving and I would therefore ask for the services of the proposed Assistant as soon as possible.

If Atkinson is returning as I am told he is to be Assistant for general purposes I think it will be sufficient for he could attend specially to the estate work and the nomination of a man on special duty will then be unnecessary.

The successful claimant particularly asks that the matter may be settled without the deputation of a special officer for he seems to dread that delay will be occasioned by such an appointment and as it is a great object to bring this claimant to terms I think that for the present a special officer may be done without and the work got through by one of the collectors' assistants.

Time will show whether this will be sufficient.

Yours sincerely
