Dear Mr Austin

I have just received your telegram of yesterday date with a view to obtaining a loan from the Treasury. I have already sent a medical certificate to the Secretary. I have now
written to him asking
him to be good enough to send it on direct.

to you. There is ^{very} much civil business in negotiation so the certificate is granted by my own hands
but is accompanied by a letter from the
late civil business which I think be sufficient. I should be greatly obliged
if you could let me know who
my successor
is to be.

3/ I am quite prepared if necessary to go before a medical board

Yours very truly
