Dated

From

~~THE~~ MAGISTRATE OF BELLARY

To,

The Honble R. Davidson C.S.I.

~~THE~~ Chief Secretary to Government,

Fort Saint George.

Sir,

With reference to my appointment, notified in Fort Saint George Gazette of the 24th April last, page 217, to act as District and Sessions Judge of North Tanjore with effect from the 19th June next, I have the honor to point out that as I shall be relieved here by Mr. Gordon on the afternoon of the 4th June, the join-ing time allowed me for the journey from this place to Tanjore has will not extend to the 19th June.

I

I shall therefore be under the necessity of resigning my appointment at Vellore in the interim unless Government are pleased to permit me to join at Tranquebar on 15th June. I learn that Mr Woodroffe will proceed on leave on 14th June and therefore the Court will be vacant on the 15th, and I venture to hope that Government will permit me to assume charge on that day and thus obviate any disturbance of the arrangements at Vellore.

I beg that I may be favored with a reply by telegraph as the time between this and my departure from Bellary is very limited.

I have the honor to be Yours most obed^t servant
as directed
J. D. D. D.
