Dear Madam

I have just received the orders of Government as to Subbrayan and Vengay Pillai and am carrying them
out, but I think it

only right to say that I think it would be better to put the former into a Treasury. There nothing very definite
being against him
of my own knowledge,
but his reputation
is none of the best.

I am very sorry to think we have charge
of that unfortunate
Division. Bingu
pillai has not lost his ability, but I should be much more comfortable with him
there.

may be remembered that Herbert is applying for leave
leave immediately
to discharge his duties for a time
a new head resident

Yours sincerely
J. Cunningham

Sir,

In reply to your telegram of the 5th inst., directing me to explain more fully Mr. Stubbbs' wishes and position generally, I have the honor to state that Mr. Stubbbs is entitled to privilege leave and that for various domestic reasons (as well as on account of the state of his health), he apprehends that he may be compelled to take leave very shortly; and as a short acting appointment would only interfere with work in his own Division, in which he is interested, he deprecates any such merely temporary change. During his present acting appointment he has retained charge of his own Division, but that is not an arrangement suitable for 3 months.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant

Eligible for three months Privilege leave under Sec 73 of the Civil leave Code 5th Edition. Under Sec 8(4) of the Civil Pension Code Govt pay its share according to the Rule of Proportions, of the Privilege leave allowances of an officer transferred to Foreign service. Upon the analogy of this section it would seem that Mr Turner's Privilege leave allowances should be paid according to the Rule of Proportions by the Rammad Estate and Govt. The Code does not however specifically provide for the case and orders of Govt on the point are therefore solicited.

Turner has no objection to the proposed arrangement. The leave sanctioned there appears no reason for considering the question raised by the Accountant General.
