2 NO. N12

My dear Sir,

I am sincerely sorry to have appeared to have neglected an Order of Government, but the fact is that my clerk had not the time back into my ways - as it is, this paper came, so it seems he was a habit of acting under Major Shaw, in matters of what he was pleased to call "routine".

That is to say he took the order himself without saying a word to me on the subject; and, as I was then extremely busy (since I had on just returned to my office), he put it into his office box with the intention of attending to it when the unusual types of work should have passed over. Unfortunately, however, the work only increased; and still more unfortunately for me, my flesh got seriously ill, & I had to overlook this order; and I was not until I got your first card many days ago that I was aware of its existence.

nothing like such apparent neglect ever occurred before in his office, during the seven to half years ^{DISPOSED} ^{D. No.} ~~his~~ his appointment; before; and, now that things are returning to their old form, I can confidently profess that nothing like it will ever occur again.

With many thanks for his trouble, you, I am, my dear Sir,

Very truly
Yours
Thomas Wilson.

The Hon. J. C. Master
